

Question of the Week – May 8, 2022

What is your favorite tip from Warren Buffet?

Warren Buffett has been extremely successful at investing in goods and services. But recently, he was quoted as saying “The best thing you can do is to be exceptionally good at something.” The point is to invest in yourself. So, are you the best at something you do at work or in your community? If not, why not?
Arturo Corral

Leader Talking Points

Opportunity: Team-Building Activity

- a. Ask team members for examples of being the best at something outside of work.
 - 1) Restoring Bronze Plaques at Cemetery: Taking the challenge to restore a 21 year old bronze plaque at the cemetery and making it look like new.
 - 2) Other.

Discussion Points

- a. Ask your team for examples of being the best at something at work.
 - 1) Sales Trainer: When you achieve mastery level at delivering sales training workshops and your colleagues look up to you for tips on to improve their delivery of the material.
 - 2) Other.
- b. Ask your team for ideas on how to promote being the best at something at work.
 - 1) Team Meetings: Share and recognize stories on how someone achieved mastery at a task.
 - 2) Other?

Team Challenge Activity

- a. Ask the team to offer one or two areas where achieving mastery level has been an issue.
 - 1) Example: Identify a situation where a team is challenged by a team member who dismisses the importance of achieving excellence level performance.
 - 2) Ask for a volunteer to take the lead to work with the manager and team on the selected opportunity and report back to team on next steps.

AMC Sedona Management LLC
arturo.corral@sedonamanagement.com